Answer the following questions:

1. List those things in which your child is most interested. How are these interests demonstrated?
2. Does your child enjoy reading? What types of books does the child enjoy?
3. How does your child show interest or concern in current problems of society?
4. Does your child exhibit an unusual degree of curiosity? In what manner does he/she seek answers to those questions?
5. Do you consider your child a perfectionist? If so, why?
6. Does your child enjoy group activities or working/playing/studying alone? If alone, in what type of activities is he/she engaged?
7. Do you feel that your child may be gifted? If so, why?

Please provide any additional information that you feel would benefit the identification/placement committee during the decision process. If more space is needed, continue on back.
